MAFN ANNOUNCES 2017-2018 DC FACILITATOR WORKSHOP SERIES

10-Session Series Offers Fresh Ideas, New Tools & Approaches to Improve Facilitation Skills

WASHINGTON, DC – Consultants, managers, and coaches within organizations who use facilitation in their work will have the opportunity to gain some new skills and insights from MAFN's signature DC Workshop Series beginning September 29, 2017. Featuring speakers from around the country and the Mid-Atlantic Region, the sessions will cover a wide range of topics.

The series consists of 9 three-hour interactive workshops and one full-day workshop that are designed for continuing education and skills development. The sessions support the profession's core competencies as outlined by the International Association of Facilitators (IAF).

MAFN's Workshop Series brings together people from across the region who are interested in honing their skills as facilitators, whether they are consultants, trainers or working in-house at their organizations. MAFN is a dynamic and collaborative learning community and the workshop series offers a rare opportunity to connect with peers and develop new skills in facilitation. Members and guest give the organization rave reviews applauding the quality of the sessions. “The MAFN Series gives you great value at a great price on a monthly basis” said Cynthia Pace, Ph.D., CPF and Chairman of MAFN.

Registration for the 2017-2018 workshop series is now open. The cost for the full series is for $325 for MAFN members and $500 for non-members, with an early-bird discount available for members only until September 15. A listing of the sessions offered in the series is attached. To register, visit www.mafn.org.

About MAFN

MAFN is a vibrant, inclusive, and growing community of successful facilitators who continuously teach and learn innovative practices, and foster professionalism and credibility of our work with clients, organizations, and facilitators throughout the region and beyond. With members from the Mid-Atlantic States and across the US, MAFN provides opportunities for members to enhance their skills, expertise, and professionalism as facilitators; connect with, support, and learn from colleagues; expand business skills, connections, and opportunities to facilitate; and promotes the value of professional facilitation.
